

Great Leaders of Catholic Spirituality

Video Series

Within our Catholic tradition we are blessed to have an abundance of holy men and women who have lived their lives as a testimony to the yearning of the human spirit to be in touch with God.

Now you can learn about some of these great figures who have contributed to the shaping of our Catholic spirituality.

This video series is produced by the Diocesan Department of Evangelization and Catechesis and features presenters from around the Diocese of Rochester.

Archbishop Oscar Romero – Dr. Damian Zynda
St. Benedict – Rev. Dr. Daniel McMullin
St. Francis and St. Clare – Dr. William Cook
St. Ignatius Loyola – Rev. Carsten Martensen, SJ
St. John of the Cross – Deacon Claude Curtin
St. Teresa of Avila – Sr. Joan Wagner, SSJ
St. Therese of Lisieux – Giovina Caroscio
Thomas Merton – Msgr. William H. Shannon

Each program provides biographical information and an introduction to the style of spirituality that each person exemplifies.
