

Prayer with the Sunday Readings

for individuals and small groups
September - November 2008

AN INVITATION TO PRAY WITH THE SUNDAY READINGS

These prayers have been created by modifying prayers we prepared originally for Parish Pastoral Councils to use at the beginning and end of their meetings. With the advent of the diocesan renewal, Spirit Alive!, many individuals and groups have asked for a resource they could use to prepare for the Sunday liturgy by reflecting on its readings.

We expect to continue providing a similar resource throughout the three years of Spirit Alive. Please feel free to adapt these to your own needs.

Hints for the Prayer Leader

Preparation before the faith sharing session

1. Read through the prayer session for the following Sunday. Become familiar with it.
2. Make enough copies of the prayer for all you expect to participate.

A Walk Through the Prayer Outline

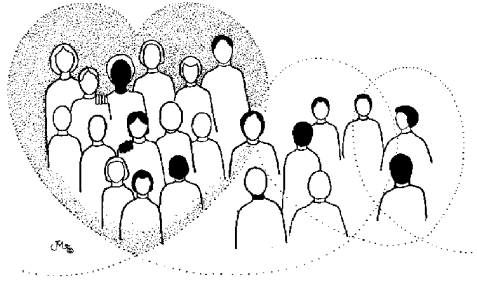

1. Invite those present to become quiet and remember that they are in the presence of God. After a brief pause, begin the Invitation to Prayer.
2. Either read the Scripture passage yourself or have someone else do so (ask them before the session begins).
3. Allow several minutes for silent reflection and consideration of the faith sharing questions.
4. Invite those present to respond to any of the suggested questions for faith sharing out loud. You do not need to cover all of the questions. People may also choose to share how the reading spoke to them in general. All do not need to respond but allow silent pauses so that people can reflect comfortably.
5. Begin the intercessory prayers as written in the prayer session.
6. Invite others to share their own prayers aloud.
7. When all who choose to share prayers are done, say “For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts.”
8. Begin the closing prayer.

Faith Sharing Guidelines

Each person is led by God on his or her personal spiritual journey. Faith sharing refers to shared reflections on the action of God in one's experience as related to Scripture and faith. Faith sharing is not discussion, problem solving, or scripture study. The purpose is an encounter, between a person in the concrete circumstances of life and the Word of God, which leads to a conversion of heart. The entire faith sharing process is seen as prayer, i.e. listening to the Word of God as revealed in scripture and in each other's experience.

1. Participants are given time to reflect before sharing begins, and a period of comfortable silence might occur between individuals sharing. Silence is a vital part of the total process of faith sharing.
2. Sharing is optional. Each person shares at the time and on the level where he or she feels comfortable.
3. There is no set order for sharing (you do not need to go in a circle around the group).
4. Listen respectfully and openly. If someone does not hear the sharing or does not understand, he or she can ask for clarification.
5. There is no discussion or commenting on what is shared. An appropriate response from the prayer leader or group might be a smile, a nod, or a "thank you."
6. The prayer leader and group are not there as "problem solvers" or "advice givers."
7. Participants are encouraged to share in the first person (I feel...I believe...etc.).
8. Anything that is shared in the group is confidential and does not leave the group. It is meant to be a gift for this group only.

Becoming a People of Love
23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 7, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

Leader: Holy God,
 out of love, you created us and our world.
 In love and mercy, you redeemed us in Jesus, Loving Word made flesh.
 With patience and love, you remain with us and sanctify us through your Holy Spirit.
 Help us to be your people,
 people whose lives are lived in loving service to all.
 We ask this, as we ask all things, through your Son, Jesus Christ.

All: Amen.

Scripture Reading: Romans 13:8-10

Owe nothing to anyone, except to love one another; for the one who loves another has fulfilled the law. The commandments, "You shall not commit adultery; you shall not kill; you shall not steal; you shall not covet," and whatever other commandment there may be, are summed up in this saying, namely "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Love does no evil to the neighbor; hence, love is the fulfillment of the law.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

1. It is not enough to simply not do something evil to another. Christ calls us to actively love each other. Are there times when a loving action has brought you closer to another?
2. Are there times when such an action has been extended to a person you found difficult? What happened?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: As people of love, let us present God with the prayers and concerns of our hearts.

For our church, that we might set aside petty divisions and become a people that truly loves and serves each other and our world, we pray...
All: God of love, hear our prayer.

Leader: For the peoples of the world, that we may put love into action by providing decent housing, adequate health care, and solid education for all, we pray...

All: God of love, hear our prayer.

Leader: Please offer any other needs so that we may pray for them...

(When all who choose to share are finished offering prayers)
For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts, we pray:
All: God of love, hear our prayer.

Closing Prayer

Leader: May love be in your eyes so that you see Christ in all you meet.

All: May love be on your lips, so that you speak gently and kindly.

Leader: May love be in your ears, so that you may listen to others with patience.

All: May love be in your hands, so that you may work steadfastly for others.

Leader: May love be in your feet, so that you may go wherever you are needed.

All: And may love be in your mind and heart, so that you may know Love and be Love for the world. Amen.

Lift High The Cross
The Exaltation of the Holy Cross
September 14, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

Leader: Let us become aware of the life that is ours through the suffering of Jesus in loving us to death, death on the cross. (Pause for a moment of silence.)

Scripture Reading: Philippians 2: 6 –11

Brothers and sisters,
Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God something to be grasped.
Rather, he emptied himself, taking the form of a slave,
coming in human likeness; and found human in appearance,
he humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.

Because of this, God greatly exalted him
and bestowed on him the name which is above every name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend,
of those in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

1. What draws you to this image of Jesus?
2. How does this picture of Jesus challenge you in the way you live your life, the things you do and the values you hold?

Intercessory Prayer

Leader: In confidence we now offer God our prayers and our needs.

That we might imitate Christ our Savior and grow in our obedience to God's will, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Please offer any other needs so that we may pray for them...

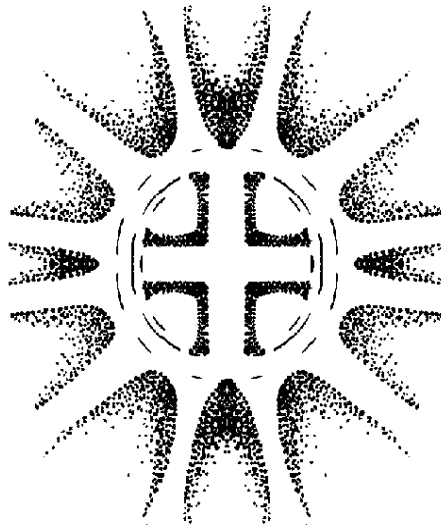

(When all who choose are finished offering prayers)

For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts, we pray:

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Closing Prayer:

All: Our Father...

God's Limitless Goodness
25th Sunday of Ordinary Time
September 21, 2008

Preparation: The Scripture passage is a familiar one. Take this opportunity, outside of a liturgical setting, to give it fresh life and proclaim it as a good story, full of drama, spoken in several and varied voices. In advance of the meeting, the leader asks 1-3 others to take the parts of the landowner and storytellers and to practice reading them with inflection and meaningful timing. There are two storyteller roles to help distinguish and move from one scene to the next. (Remind whoever takes this role, male or female, that in this passage Jesus is the storyteller.) If these parts need to be consolidated into one, make sure the reader pauses in between to emphasize the move to a new scene in the story. The leader has the opening line, but may also take another role if need be.

Invitation to Prayer

Leader: Let us pray...O Gracious God,
Women: You are more generous than we could ever imagine.
Men: Your goodness is deeper than our human hearts can fathom.
Women: Help us move beyond the confines of our limits.
Men: Prepare us to receive your holy Word.
All: Amen.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 20:1-15

The leader explains that tonight everyone will be involved in this Scripture reading and names the role that each will play. When all are clear as to what is happening next and what is expected of them, the leader sets the stage, inviting them to silently recall an unfair experience. After a moment the leader begins the reading:

Leader: Jesus told his disciples this parable:

1st Storyteller: The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage, he sent them into his vineyard.

2nd Storyteller: Going out about nine o'clock, the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them,

The Landowner: You too go into my vineyard, and I will give you what is just.

1st Storyteller: So they went off.

2nd Storyteller: And he went out again around noon, and around three o'clock, and did likewise.

1st Storyteller: Going out about five o'clock, the landowner found others standing around, and said to them,

The Landowner: Why do you stand here idle all day?

Men (the Last): Because no one has hired us.

The Landowner: You too go into my vineyard.

2nd Storyteller: When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman,

The Landowner: Summon the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and ending with the first.

1st Storyteller: When those who had started about five o'clock came, each received the usual wage.

2nd Storyteller: So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more, but each of them also got the usual wage. And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner, saying,

Women (the First): These last ones worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us, who bore the day's burden and the heat.

The Landowner: My friend, I am not cheating you. Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage? Take what is yours and go. What if I wish to give this last one the same as you? Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money? Are you envious because I am generous?

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

1. What about this gospel story moved me?
2. God's generosity is outrageous by our standards of fairness. Do I sense I am being called to enlarge my heart and spirit in some particular way?
3. In what ways do I sense our community can broaden our perspective or expand our horizons in order to better exemplify the gospel message of God's amazingly generous nature?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: Almighty God, you put in us a spark of your divine love.
Help us to live our lives inspired by your love.

All: Lord, grant us your mercy.

Leader: Christ Jesus, throughout your ministry you taught us the way to love.
In an outrageous act of love, in your Passion, Death and Resurrection, you freed us from sin so we could love again. Help us live lives of gratitude.

All: Lord, grant us your mercy.

Leader: Holy God, you pour out your Spirit upon us and we are strengthened in love.
Help us to live lives of generosity.

All: Lord, grant us your mercy.

Leader: For what else shall we pray...
(When all who choose are finished voicing prayers)
For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts...

All: Lord, grant us your mercy.

Closing Prayer

Leader: O God, come to our assistance.

All: Lord, make haste to help us.

Hear God Speaking
26th Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 28, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

All: Gracious God, give us ears to hear your call to us. Sharpen our senses to recognize you in the circumstances of our daily life and to follow where you lead us.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 21:28-32

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people:
“What is your opinion?
A man had two sons. He came to the first and said,
‘Son, go out and work in the vineyard today.’
He said in reply, ‘I will not,’
But afterwards changed his mind and went.
The man came to the other son and gave the same order.
He said in reply, ‘Yes, sir,’ but did not go.
Which of the two did his father’s will?”
They answered, “The first.”

Jesus said to them, “Amen, I say to you,
tax collectors and prostitutes
are entering the kingdom of God before you.
When John came to you in the way of righteousness,
you did not believe him;
but tax collectors and prostitutes did.
Yet even when you saw that,
you did not later change your minds and believe him.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

1. When have you said no and then thought better of it and said YES?
2. As leaders within our community, how can we ponder the Gospel to find the heart of God being spoken to our parish community this very day?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: Lord, protect and guide your people as we strive to bring peace and justice to our communities...

All: Lord, have mercy.

Leader: Lord, strengthen those who struggle to follow your call...

All: Lord, hear us.

Leader: Lord, give us courage to listen and see your way for us...

All: Lord, hear us.

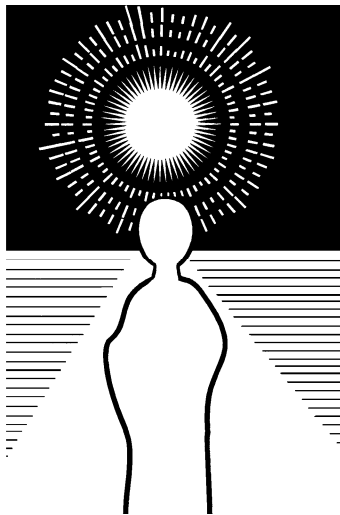

Leader: For what else shall we pray...

(When all who choose are finished voicing prayers)
For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts...

All: Lord, have mercy.

Closing Prayer

All: May we hear the Shepherd's voice and follow it boldly. Amen.

Peace Be With You
27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 5, 2008

Invitation to prayer

All: Lord God, giver of peace and healer of souls, may your peace be upon us as we gather.

Scripture Reading: Philippians 4:6-9

Dismiss all anxiety from your minds. Present your needs to God in every form of prayer and in petitions and gratitude. Then God's own peace, which is beyond all understanding, will stand guard over your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers and sisters, your thoughts should wholly be directed to all that is true, all that deserves respect, all that is honest, pure, admirable, decent, virtuous, or worthy of praise. Live according to what you have learned and accepted, what you have heard me say and seen me do. Then will the God of peace be with you.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

1. How well does our parish pray together?
2. What virtues does our faith sharing group have? What virtues do we lack?
3. What issues in the parish need peaceful resolutions?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: In confidence we now offer God our prayers and our needs.

For all who serve others in any capacity, that they do so humbly and with loving kindness, we pray to the Lord.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Please offer any other needs so that we may pray for them...

(When all who choose are finished offering prayers) For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Closing Prayer

All: Good and gracious God, in you we seek peace and joy. Be with us as we journey through life and encounter chaos and sadness. May we always know your love among us in the person of Jesus Christ your only Son. Amen.

God's Vision, God's Promise to Us
28th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 12, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

Leader: Be still and aware of God's presence within and all around...

Scripture Reading: Excerpt from Isaiah 25:6-10

On this mountain the Lord of hosts will provide for all peoples
a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines.

On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
the web that is woven over all nations;
he will destroy death forever.
The Lord God will wipe away the tears from every face;
the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth;
for the Lord has spoken.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silent Reflection

Which part of this portrayal of God's intentions for us and all people speaks most powerfully to you right now?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: For all those who are suffering and in tears:

All: God of mercy, hear our prayer.

Leader: Please offer any other needs so that we may pray for them...

(When all who choose are finished offering prayers)
For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts...

All: God of mercy, hear our prayer.

Chosen by God
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 19, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

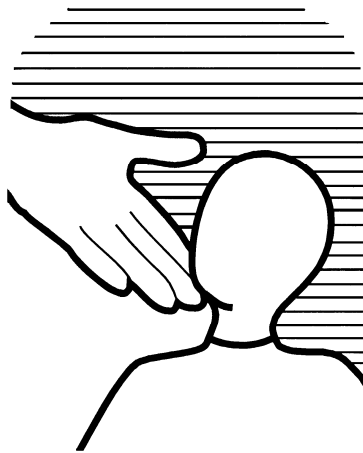

Leader: We are the chosen ones of God – chosen to receive the gift of life, chosen to receive the gift of faith,
 chosen in our baptism to be disciples of Jesus
 in the midst of all the complexities and challenges of today's world.

Scripture Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; grace to you and peace.

We give thanks to God always for all of you, remembering you in our prayers, unceasingly calling to mind your work of faith and labor of love and endurance in hope of our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father, knowing, brothers and sisters loved by God, how you were chosen. For our gospel did not come to you in word alone, but also in power and in the Holy Spirit and with much conviction.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silent reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

One of the most affirming experiences of life is to “be chosen”-- for a team, a job, a promotion, as a spouse, for an important task that serves the community, etc.

In what aspects of your life do you feel called by God?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: O God, you share your life with us through the talents you give us. Make us responsible stewards of these gifts, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Jesus, you knew the vulnerability of your disciples. Guide and protect your Church, all who minister to your people and all who suffer from addictions of any kind, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: One of the gifts of the Holy Spirit is courage. May this gift strengthen us to live God’s will with determination and conviction, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Your Spirit dwells in us, forming us in love. Help us to remember that you are at work in us, bringing love to a broken world, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Closing Prayer

All: Lord Christ, you have no body on earth but ours, no hands but ours, no feet but ours.
Ours are the eyes through which your compassion must look out on the world.
Ours are the feet by which you may still go about doing good.
Ours are the hands with which you bless people now.
Bless our minds and bodies, that we may be blessing to others. Amen

Loving God with All our Being
30th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 26, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

Leader: Gracious and loving God, we often test you with our slowness and our refusal to do what you ask of us. Have mercy on us, and touch our hearts so that we might always do your will. We ask this as we ask all things, through your Son Jesus Christ.

All: Amen.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them--a scholar of the law--tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

1. What are some of the ways you show your love for God "with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind"? What are some ways you have seen others show such love?
2. How is this parish being called to show love for our neighbors?
3. The third part of the command involves loving yourself. What are some of the ways you exhibit a healthy love of self? What are some ways we hear people put themselves down, denying their goodness?
4. How can we help our fellow parishioners live out these commands in the next year?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: Let us bring our gathering to a close by thanking God for this time together and asking for God's help for ourselves and all who are in need.

For our church, that we might love our God, with one heart, soul, and mind...and that we might love our neighbors as ourselves, we pray.

All: Gracious God, teach us to love.

Leader: For all nations, that we might place ourselves in loving service to each other in order to bring about the justice and peace of the kingdom of God, we pray.

All: Gracious God, teach us to love.

Leader: Please offer any other needs so that we may pray for them...

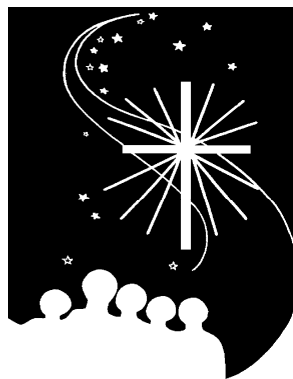

(When all who choose to share are finished offering prayers)

For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts, we pray:

All: Gracious God, teach us to love.

Closing Prayer

All: Loving and compassionate God,
Touch our hearts that we might love you without reserve,
our souls that we might remain fervent in our faith,
and our minds that we might seek to know you.
Teach us to love and serve our neighbors and to be grateful for the gift of being your sons and daughters.
Guide us and protect us always...
We ask this in the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Hope in God
The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed
November 2, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

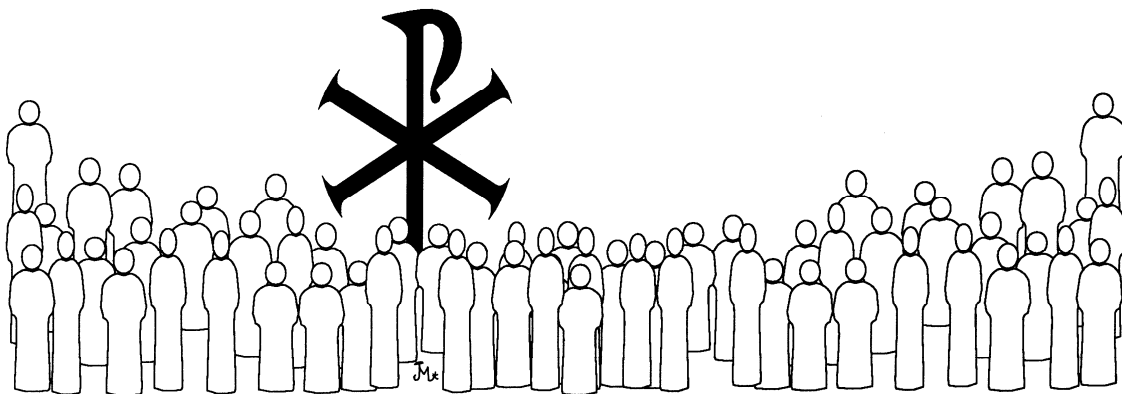

Leader: I am the resurrection and the life.
All those who believe in me will receive life everlasting.

Scripture Reading John 14: 1-8

Jesus said to his disciples:
“Do not let your hearts be troubled.
You have faith in God; have faith also in me.

“In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places
if there were not, would I have told you that I am going to prepare a place for you?
And if I go and prepare a place for you,
I will come back again and take you to myself,
so that where I am you also may be.
Where I am going you know the way.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Silent Reflection

Question for Faith Sharing

What memories would you like to share of those who have died and witnessed to faith and hope during their life?

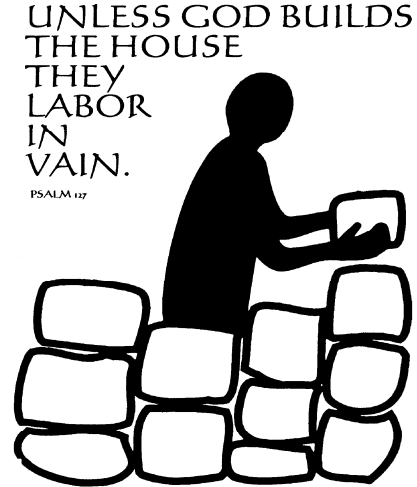

Intercessory Prayer

Leader: In the form of a litany let us name deceased love ones...
after each name pray, We give thanks!

Closing Prayer

All: Comforting God, you are present with us and we live in you.
Strengthen us to bring hope into the lives of others. Amen.

Building the Church
Dedication of the Lateran Basilica
November 9, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

Leader: Gracious God, bless us tonight.
Bless your people, the Church at _____ (parish name)
We are the body of Christ; we want to grow in Christ in every way.
Each part, working properly, promoting the body's growth, building itself up in love. Bless each part.
Join and knit us together--one body and one Spirit, one Lord of all.
We ask these things in Jesus' name.

All: Amen.

Scripture Reading: 1 Corinthians 3:9c-11

You are God's field, God's building. According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing (choose one set for faith sharing at your gathering)

In his letter to the Church at Corinth, Paul uses the metaphor of building. In his teachings, Jesus often used metaphors to get across to his disciples the nature of our relationship, for example, "I am the vine you are the branches."

1. Which metaphor gives me the greatest insight into Christ's relationship with his Church?

At the time Paul is writing to the Corinthians, they are a new Christian community divided into two factions quarreling jealously among themselves.

1. Do I see lines of division in our community?
2. What metaphor would I use to get across a sense of the present state of our community?

Paul shepherds the Corinthians away from their meaningless partisanship, "back to basics." He portrays the development of holiness as a work in progress.

1. What insight do these metaphors give me into how we can continue to grow in holiness, both as individuals and as a faith community?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: With the words of St. Paul, let us pray,
God of Glory, give us a spirit of wisdom and revelation as we come to know you.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: God of Glory, enlighten our hearts so we may know the hope to which you have called us.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: God of Glory, put your power to work through Christ in us.

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: For what else shall we pray...
(When all who choose are finished voicing prayers)
For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Closing Prayer

All: Gracious God, watch over your people tonight. Bless your Church at _____. Make us a visible sign of the reconciling power of your love.
Amen.

Side 1: You radiate an inner joy and peace wherever you go;

 Yes, blessed are you who reverence the Beloved!

1. How are we reaching out to the poor and the needy in our community? Are we missing anyone?
2. How can we create new ways of being a community of joy?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: As we gather the fruit of our evening, in deep trust let us bring our prayers to our God...

May compassion always draw us to the gates of those in need, we pray:

All: God, the Beloved, hear our prayer.

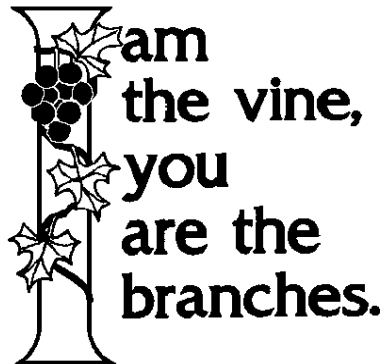

Leader: Please offer any needs so that we may pray for them...
(When all who choose are finished offering prayers)
For these prayers and all those we hold deep in our hearts...

All: God, the Beloved, hear our prayer.

Closing Prayer

Leader: May the peace of Christ be with us.

Let us share a sign of peace with one another.

See Christ in all the Poor
Christ the King
November 23, 2008

Invitation to Prayer

Leader: Lord, Jesus, we praise you,
All: Lord have mercy.
Leader: Christ, Jesus, we give thanks for your love,
All: Christ have mercy.
Leader: Lord, Jesus, we rejoice in your life within us,
All: Lord have mercy.

Scripture Reading: Matthew 25:31-46

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit upon his glorious throne, and all the nations will assemble before them. And he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. Then the King will say to those on his right, "Come, you who are blessed by my Father. Inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." Then the righteous will answer him and say, "Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? When did we see you ill or in prison, and visit you?" And the king will say to them in reply, "Amen, I say to you, whatever you did for one of the least brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me"...

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Silent Reflection

Questions for Faith Sharing

Deep in our hearts is an impetus to do good in our own small sphere of life and beyond, but everyday demands keep us more than busy.

1. Despite this reality, how do you try to fulfill your responsibility to some of those in need, beyond your immediate family or friends?
2. What is your favorite charity and how did you choose it? How do you support it?
3. Have you ever experienced a 'nudge' from God to respond in love to someone or some need you have previously neglected?

Intercessory Prayers

Leader: Help us to simplify our lives, to know how to distinguish want from need, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: You are ever present to us in our need, let us not be indifferent to the sufferings of others, we pray,...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Spirit of God, help us to realize the life to which we are called. Guide us to find appropriate ways to advocate on behalf of the powerless, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Heal our cities of violence. Give us the compassion to forgive all who have injured us in any way, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Leader: Jesus, you did not call your disciples servants but friends. Help us to build your Kingdom by mutual respect and collaboration, we pray...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Closing Prayer

Leader: We praise you, Lord and God, for you are a Shepherd King, who calls us to show your love to those who suffer: the poor, the sick, the lonely, the grieving and those without resources to improve their lives...And so we pray...

All: Make us instruments of your peace:
where there is hatred, let us sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is discord, union;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light
and where there is sadness, joy.
O divine master, grant that we may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love;
for it is in giving that we receive.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen.

(Prayer of St. Francis)
